Summertime Fun Charts!

Are you looking for a way to motivate your children to use their time wisely? This fun chart will provide your child with numerous ideas to keep them busy this summer!

To use these charts, first type in your child's name at the top. Then begin filling in the chart by clicking on each box and typing in the activity. Then go to the box at the bottom and type in whatever "treat" you desire for your children to earn.

Here are some links for great freetime activities to get you started:

Once the chart is filled in, print it on cardstock paper. Post it on the refrigerator for easy access.

Younger children can place stickers over boxes completed, while older children may just want to mark an "X" in the box.

Enjoy,
Sheri
